The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

NEW-YORK, November 16.

Laſt Wedneſday arrived here Capt. Farmer in 31 Days from London, by whom, from the publick Prints, we have the following Advices, viz.

From the London GAZETTE.

DANTZICK, September 13.

THIS Evening a Courier arriv'd from Peterſburg to the Ruſſian Reſident in this City, and brought an Account, that General Laſcy being arrived in Finland, went on the 2d Inſtant to reconnoitre the Swediſh Army, and found them ſtrongly intrench'd on a riſing Ground near a Fort call'd Wilmerſtrand, and well fortified: That on the 3d in the Afternoon, he order'd the Ruſſian Army to advance and attack the Swedes, which they did with ſo much Bravery, that after an obſtinate Fight of ſome Hours, the Swedes, who defended themſelves in a deſperate Manner, were put to flight, and the Ruſſian Army obtain'd a complete Victory. The Ruſſians afterwards ſtorm'd and took Fort Wilmerſtrand, and made themſelves Maſters of the whole Artillery, of two conſiderable Magazines, and all the Baggage. General Wrangel, who commanded the Swediſh Army, was taken Priſoner, with about two thouſand Men; and the Number of Swedes that were kill'd in this Engagement amount to about ſeven thouſand. In this Action the left Wing of the Ruſſian Army being put into ſome Diſorder, General Lacy went himſelf with three Regiments of diſmounted Dragoons to ſupport it, where he receiv'd a ſlight Wound; and ſeveral General Officers were kill'd and wounded on both Sides.

Extract of a Letter from the HAGUE, Sept. 15.

"The laſt Time I wrote to you, I took Notice, that the Conjectures of our Politicians might poſſibly prove as authentick as any News I could write. Time ſeems now to have juſtify'd that Conjecture; for our Letters from Munich of the 5th Inſt. bring us a kind of Manifeſto from the Elector of Bavaria, under the Title of a Deduction of the Rights of that Electoral Houſe to the Kingdoms of Hungary and Bohemia, and the other States of the Houſe of Auſtria. It is but ſhort, yet ſtrongly and peremptorily expreſs'd, ſo that without doubt the Rights pretended, and Arguments advanced therein, will be ſpeedily ſupported by the laſt Reaſons of Princes.

Copenhagen, Sept. 12. On the 9th Inſtant Orders were ſent to General Schulenburg, to march with the ſix Thouſand Daniſh Troops in his Britannick Majeſty's Pay, to the Elbe, in order to paſs that River, which they are accordingly to do forthwith near Hamburgh.

Francfort, Sept. 14. Thirty-five Thouſand French Troops, which are but a little Diſtance from Philipſburg, on the other ſide the Rhine are ready to paſs that River as ſoon as they receive Orders.

Vienna, Sept. 6. The Number of Workmen employ'd at the Fortifications of this City have been augmented Different Bodies of Troops are to aſſemble in this Neighbourhood to form an Army of thirty Thouſand Men.

Ratiſbon, Sept. 11. The Elector of Bavaria's Manifeſto is handed about here, wherein is contain'd a Declaration of War againſt the Court of Vienna.

Paris, Sept. 16. N. S. Within theſe few Days our Miniſters begin to talk with more Openneſs than uſual on the preſent State of Affairs; and it is no longer doubted, but the great Point of late in Agitation has been to fix the Imperial Crown on the Head of the Elector of Bavaria: 'tis even aſſured, that all Things are in ſuch Forwardneſs for the Election, that it will be declared as ſoon as the French and Bavarian Troops are join'd. If this is Fact, as 'tis highly probable, the Houſe of Auſtria may truly ſay, that the Glory is departed from her, and that of Bourbon triumph in the Fall of her ancient Rival. Some of our Politicians, however, greatly blame the Queen of Hungary, for not ſtrikingup an Accommodation with the King of Pruſſia at any Rate, while it was in her Power. Others again ſtrenuouſly aſſert, that Pruſſia was from the Beginning ſo cloſely ally'd with France, that no Conceſſion of any Kind whatever would have had the deſir'd Effect.

It is confirm'd, that the Troops commanded by the Marſhal de Maillebois, are deſtin'd for a Viſit to Hanover; but, what is much more ſurprizing, 'tis added, that this Viſit will be made at the Inſtance of the King of Pruſſia.

The laſt Column of French Troops, deſtin'd for Bavaria, have received freſh Orders to continue their Route.

If our Advices from Stockholm are to be depended upon, the Swedes will declare War againſt the Engliſh, in caſe they ſend a Squadron into the Baltick, to the Aid of the Ruſſians.

Stockholm, Sept. 5. They write from Carlſcroon, that eight Men of War are actually ſail'd from thence for the North Sea, to intercept the Ruſſian Squadron coming from Archangel.

Duſſeldorp, Sept. 14. N, S. The Elector of Cologn's and Palatine's Commiſſaries have bought up Corn enough to ſubſiſt an Army of 80,000 Men during four Months; and that when the Troops of thoſe two Electors join the French Army, which was to be in a few Days, they will make in all near 70,000 Men.

Plymouth, Sept. 11. Yeſterday two French Ships were ſent in by Capt. Harriſon, Commander of the Argyle Man of War, taken off the Bar of Oporto, loaden with Naval Stores for Spain; tho' it is pretended they were at Anchor within the ſaid Port, and that the Capture will be diſputed. Paſſed by the Lenox and Aſſiſtance Man of War for Spithead, with two Spaniſh Prizes taken by the latter, one of them richly loaded.

Letters by the Holland Mail adviſe, that the Whale-Fiſhery there this Seaſon, has turn'd out the fineſt that ever was known.

LON-

LONDON, Sept. 10.

The Artillery and Field Pieces design'd for the Land Forces, that are ordered for Jamaica, are deliver'd out of the Ordnance-Office, and shipping on board the Transport Ships with all Expedition.

Sept. 12. On Wednesday the Commissioners of the Victualling-Office contracted for a large Quantity of Flour to be exported directly for the Service of the Forces in America.

The Officers who are to attend his Majesty in his Return home, are order'd to be ready, on the first Notice, to go on board the Yatchts.

It was said this Morning, that Sir John Norris (accompanied by several Officers belonging to the Fleet) was to set out to Day for Portsmouth, in order to take upon him the Command of the Men of War assembled at Spithead.

And we hear that a considerable Part of the said Fleet will sail towards the Baltick.

It is said that his Majesty will return to Great Britain in a very short time.

Sept. 15. Four capital Ships are ordered for the Mediterranean to reinforce the Squadron under Admiral Haddock, who, by a Ship just arrived from Gibraltar, was cruising, with six Men of War, off Cadiz.

The Defence Man of War is arriv'd at Portsmouth, and is said to have taken off St. Sebastian's a French Ship laden with Stores and Ammunition for the Spaniards; and also taken a Privateer who was coming out of that Place.

Private Letters from Paris mention, That Orders have been dispatch'd from thence to Toulon, to work extraordinarily in fitting out the Fleet there; but at the same time intimate, that there will be a great Difficulty in manning the said Fleet, a great Number of their Seamen having died at Home, as well as in their Expedition to the West-Indies.

'Tis given out, both at Versailles and at the Hague, That a Convention of Neutrality for Hanover is sign'd between the King of France and Great Britain.

'Tis reported at Ratisbon, that 10,000 Saxons are enter'd into Bohemia.

Last Thursday the Regiment quarter'd at Bristol was embark'd on board the Transports for Jamaica.

Thursday the Parliament met at Westminster, and by Virtue of a Commission sign'd by the Lords Justices, directed to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Duke of Richmond, the Earl of Isla, and others, were farther prorogu'd to the 27th of October next.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 29.

We are assured from Savannah in Georgia, that the Light-House on the Island of Tybe (at the Mouth of Savannah River) is fallen to the Ground; this fine Piece of Workmanship, so beneficial to all those who fell in with the Coast of South-Carolina and Georgia, was erected in the beginning of the Year 1736, and cost upwards of 1500 l. Sterling: It's Fall is entirely owing to the want of Covering; the Frame by being expos'd was quite rotted.

We hear also, that a large Ship which has lost her Top-Masts, was lately drove so near the Shore of Georgia, that when she was hal'd, they could hear the Englishmen on board say, there were 20 of them Prisoners, and 30 Spaniards on board, and they were but lately taken, but had lost their Way.

October 31. Advice is come, that Capt. Francis Bennet, of the Port-Factor, who sail'd from hence a few Weeks past for Lisbon, with 600 and odd Barrels of Rice on board, was together with Five other English Men, murdered in the Night (not long after he left this Place) by Three Spaniards, which he carried with him for Want of a sufficient Number of Mariners. We hear that the three Spaniards had run the Ship on Shore on the Florida Coast, near St. Augustine, and after having unladen her, carried her into that Port.

Perth-Amboy, October. 30. This being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-Day, was observed, in this City, with great Demonstrations of Joy; His Excellency our Governor gave a handsome Entertainment to the Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Assembly, on this Occasion; and, at Noon, the Royal Healths were drank under several Vollies from the Regiment of Foot Militia, who made a very good Appearance, there being about eight hundred Men in Arms; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, &c.

His Excellency hath given Orders for the several Captains of the Militia of this Province, to exercise their Companies once a Month, and for the several Regiments to meet every two Months, and perform their Exercise.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated October 13. 1741.

---- 'There arrived here Yesterday from Dominica, the Son 'of the Governor of St. Jago, one of the Cape de Verd Islands; 'he's a Negro, but a very intelligible Man, who Yesterday was 'call'd before the General and Council then sitting, and upon 'Oath declar'd, that he had been at Martinico for some time, 'and that a few Days before he left that Place, there arrived a 50 'Gun French Man of War from France, who left the Fleet she 'came out with at Sea, being 19 Men of War more, all bound 'for Martinico. That the General of Martinico had ingaged 'to the Number of 30 Sloops in the King of France's Service, 'and a great Number of Boats, so that I do believe we shall soon 'be paid a Visit.

'P. S. We had much the same Account as the above, from 'a Gentleman of St. Martin's, to his Brother here, about a 'Week ago.

Extract from the Votes of the House of Representatives of the Province of Pennsylvania, October 21. 1741.

The House taking into Consideration the many Taxes their Fellow Subjects in Great Britain are obliged to pay, towards Supporting the Dignity of the Crown, and Defraying the necessary and contingent Charges of Government, and willing to demonstrate the Fidelity, Loyalty and Affection of the Inhabitants of this Province to our gracious King, by bearing a Share of the Publick Burden with our Fellow Subjects, proportionable to our Circumstances, Do therefore chearfully and unanimously

Resolve,

That the Sum of Three Thousand Pounds current Money of Pennsylvania, be paid for the Use of the King, his Heirs and Successors, to be apply'd to such Uses as he in his Royal Wisdom shall think fit to direct and appoint. And it is

Resolved,

That the Trustees of the General Loan-Office of this Province, out of the Interest Money arising by the Act past for Emitting 80,000 l. in Bills of Credit, &c. do pay one Moiety of the said Sum; and that the Treasurer of this Province do pay the other Moiety thereof, to the Committee of Correspondence, to purchase Bills of Exchange, and make speedy Remittance thereof to our Agent at the Court of Great-Britain, to be paid into the Exchequer for the Use aforesaid, in such manner as shall be directed by the said Committee.

Resolved,

That Orders be drawn and signed pursuant to the Resolves foregoing.
